

Muddy Waters: Forty Days and Forty Nights (1956)

- 1 Forty days and forty nights
Since my baby left this town
Sun shinin' all day long
But the rain keep comin' down
- 5 She's my life I need her so
Why she left I just don't know
- Forty days and forty nights
Since I set right down and cried
Keep rainin' all the time
- 10 But the river is runnin' dry
Lord help me it just ain't right
I love that girl with all-a my might
- Forty days and forty nights
Since my baby broke my heart
- 15 Searchin' for her in a while
Like a blind man in the dark
Love can make a poor man rich
Or break his heart I don't know which
- Forty days and forty nights
- 20 Like a ship out on the sea
Prayin' for her each night
That she would come back-a home to me
Life is love and love is right
I hope she come back home tonight

McKinley Morganfield (April 4, 1913 – April 30, 1983), known as Muddy Waters, was an American blues musician, generally considered the Father of modern Chicago blues. A major inspiration for the British blues explosion in the 1960s, Muddy was ranked #17 in Rolling Stone magazine's list of the 100 Greatest Artists of All Time.

Muddy's sound was basically Delta blues electrified, but his use of microtones, in both his vocals and slide playing, made it extremely difficult to duplicate and follow correctly.

Forty days and forty nights
 Since my baby left this town
 Sun shining all day long
 But the rain keep coming down
 She's my life, I need her so
 Why she left I just don't know
 Forty days and forty nights
 Since I set right down and cried
 Keep raining all the time
 But the river is running dry
 Lord, help me, it just ain't right
 I love that girl with all of my mind

Forty days and forty nights
 Since my baby broke my heart
 Searching for her everywhere
 Like a blind man in the dark
 Love can make a poor man rich
 Or break his heart, I don't know why
 Forty days and forty nights
 Like a ship out on the sea
 Praying for her each night
 That she would come back home to me
 Life is love and love is life
 I hope she come back home tonight
