

B. B. King: You Don't Know (1957)

Walter Spriggs

- 1 You don't know how much I care
You don't know how much I need you
Without you life I can't bear
You don't know
- 5 You don't know baby
You don't know how much I love you
And you can't know just how I feel
- The flame is still burning
Burning deep down in my soul
- 10 When I think of your love and kisses
It makes my blood run cold
You don't know baby
You don't know baby
Yes you don't know how much I love you
- 15 And you can't know just how I feel
- All my friends call me crazy
For acting the way that I do
But I just can't help myself
'Cause I'm so in love with you
- 20 You don't know
Yes baby you don't know
You don't know how much I love you
And you can't know just how I feel
- You don't know
- 25 You don't know
You don't know, baby
You don't know
You don't know
You don't know, baby
- 20 You don't know
- Yes you don't know how much I love you
And you can't know just how I feel

Riley B. King (September 16, 1925-May 14, 2015), known professionally as B.B. King, was an American blues singer-songwriter, guitarist, and record producer. He introduced a sophisticated style of soloing based on fluid string bending, shimmering vibrato, and staccato picking that influenced many later blues electric guitar players. AllMusic recognized King as "the single most important electric guitarist of the last half of the 20th century".

King was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1987 and is one of the most influential blues musicians of all time, earning the nickname "The King of the Blues", and is considered one of the "Three Kings of the Blues Guitar" (along with Albert King and Freddie King, none of whom are related).

King was born on a cotton plantation of Berclair near the city of Itta Bena, Mississippi, and later worked at a cotton gin in Indianola, Mississippi. He was attracted to music and the guitar in church and began his career in juke joints and local radio. He later lived in Memphis and Chicago; then, as his fame grew, he toured the world extensively. King died at 89 in Las Vegas on May 14, 2015.
